

SASI Camp Guidelines, Polices, and Rules

Your personal safety is of paramount importance to both the University and SASI camp staff.

These rules are being provided for your safety and security.

Infringement of these rules may result in you being sent home at the expense of your parent/legal guardian.

General

- Participants will be given a detailed list of site-specific guidelines and rules upon arrival at each University.
- Participants will receive a detailed schedule upon arrival.
- Participants are expected to follow all timelines and curfews. These will be strictly enforced.
- Participants will be provided a name tag to be worn at all times when out of their room or on the campus. The nametag is to be clearly displayed.
- Loud, boisterous, or unruly behavior will not be tolerated. The University and SASI reserve the right to define this standard of behavior.
- The use or possession of any illegal substance or product is strictly prohibited at all times.
- Participants will be assigned a counselor.
- Participants will follow the camp schedule at all times and will be only in approved areas.
- Participants will be held financially liable for all damage that may occur as the result of their behavior or actions, intended or unintended.
- Participants may be photographed or video taped during certain camp events. These images may be used in future training sessions and for advertising.

Campus Related

- Participants are not leave the campus under any circumstances.
- Participants are not allowed to leave their assigned room after curfew unless evacuated by event staff, local authorities, or university personnel.
- Fraternization of participants in the dorm or sleeping areas of the opposite sex will not be allowed at any time.
- Participants are not to “roam” around the campus alone. Participants should travel in groups of at least 2 to all events.
- Participants are not to allow people into any event or rooming area who are not camp participants or event staff.
- Participants are not to reveal rooming assignments, phone numbers, etc. to persons or people who are not part of the event staff, their family, or event participants.

Staff Related

- Participants are expected to follow the directions and instructions of University and SASI staff at all times.
- Participants are expected to be respectful of all University and SASI personnel and its agents, including but not limited to conference staff, at all times.

Emergencies

- Participants are expected to notify event staff or university police for any suspicious activities.
- Participants are to contact 911 in an emergency situation, then University or SASI Staff.

Recreation

- Participant may swim only at designated times. Participants will be expected to follow all guidelines of safe practices for the swimming areas.
- During designated “free time” and “social events” participants will not be allowed to fraternize with participants of the opposite sex in their rooms. Males in Male rooms and Females in Female rooms only. NO EXCEPTIONS!

Acceptance of Information

I give my child, _____ permission to participate in a SASI leadership, drum major, or colorguard camp. I have read the SASI General Guidelines, Polices and Rules and agree to such. If any of the above listed guidelines, rules, policies, or locally established guidelines are violated I understand that my child may be dismissed from the camp at the discretion of SASI or the University and sent home from this camp at my expense. Further, I understand that my child will be given a more detailed list of “site-specific” rules and guidelines upon arrival at the camp.

(Parent Signature)

(Printed Parent Name)

(Student / Participant Signature)

(Printed Student / Participant Name)